

Dear Lois (formerly known as my Pookie),

I want to sincerely apologize for the break in our conversation and the way I have been treating you which wasn't my intentions last week that led to our fight. I realize that my actions and the way I handled things contributed to the misunderstanding, and I deeply regret how it escalated.

Moving forward, I am committed to being more mindful of my words and actions. I will make sure to communicate openly, keep you informed, and involve you in decisions that affect us. I want to take responsibility for my part and ensure that such situations don't happen again.

I am fully open to any form of punishment or way of making amends that you feel is fair, and I hope you can find it in your heart to forgive me. Your feelings matter to me, and I am determined to learn from this and be better.

Thank you for giving me the chance to make things right.

With sincerity,
Emmanuel
